THE HERALD.

JOHN P. BARRETT, EDITOR

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1883.

F. R. FELAND, of Anderson county, is the latest candidate for Register of the Land Office.

The convention to nominate a candidate for Governor of Georgia to fill the place made vacant by the death of Hon. A. H. Stevens, after a three days' contest, nominated Hon. Henry D. McDaniel.

The grand competitive military drill at Nashville in May next is to be the most extensive thing of the kind ever gotten up in the United States. Cash premiums to the amount of $8,250 will be awarded.

Is many of the Senatorial and Legislative districts of the State the canvass for the nomination is quite spirited. We are glad to see that good men are offering as candidates, and we hope to have a Legislature of sensible, progressive men.

Kentucky has five aspirants. For the gubernatorial seat, but we can't tell now in advance. Which one of them will beat.

Owsley may win and Knott may, too.

Jacob's friends are no mere drones, Buckner's friends may pull him through.

But we're inclined to "rah for Jones."

PROF. HENRY K. TAYLOR, principal of Riverside Seminary, Vincennes, Lewis county, Ky., having been called upon by the citizens of Boyd, Henry and Lewis counties, has yielded, and announces himself a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instructions.

The common school system, its revision and improvement with a view to placing it upon a reliable basis is a question that is agitating the people all over the State. In this issue will be found a communication upon the subject from W. C. C. which is a well-written, sensible article, and should be read and digested by every one having an interest in the school system.

MR. CICERO T. SUTTON has stepped down from the tripod, and has transferred the Hartford HERALD back to its old master, Mr. Jno. P. Barrett, who will appear with a pocket full of lead pencils next week. Mr. Sutton has done very well with the paper, and gives no reason for his departure. We are sorry to part with him, but glad to welcome Barrett back.—Yours,

MR. FRANK L. FELIN, our Common School Commissioner, is thoroughly enlisted in the cause of education. He called a county convention to elect delegates to State convention held at Frankfort, worked up a real live interest in the matter, was elected delegate, attended the State convention and came back warmer in the cause than ever. He is a very careful and painstaking Commissioner, and is doing all he can for the school interests of the country.

HERE we are back at home again, large as life and twice as natural, scratch-book in hand ready for any item of interest you can give us. It seems that no one can, or at least no one but ourself will, run a paper here long at a time. We have the harness on again and promise you to make as good a paper as our physical and mental strength will permit. If the people of the county will patronize us we know we can and know we will give them a better paper than they have ever had yet, but with a scant, stingy patronage we cannot do so. The more patronage you give us the better paper and more reading matter we will give you for the same money. Help us and help us now.

THE Educational Convention that recently met in Frankfort was composed of live, energetic progressive men. The defect of the present system was discussed and an Executive Committee appointed. The Executive Committee has since published an address to the people of the State, which is full of interest to the friends of popular education. The convention will probably be called together again before the next meeting of the Legislature. State Senators, Laibon T. Moore, John Bennett and James Garrett, who were appointed a committee to revise the school laws and report at the next meeting of the Legislature, were in attendance, watching with interest the proceedings. We hope much good will result to the people from the agitation of the question.

THE HERALD, under its present management, will not advocate the nomination of Hon. Proctor Knott for Governor. Not that he is unworthy or not qualified, for we know him to be an able and experienced statesman. We also know the same of Hon. Thos. L. Jones, and feel that he is fully the peer of Mr. Knott or any other statesman in Kentucky. Besides, we have a candidate in our county for one of the State offices in the person of Prof. W. B. Hayward, and we are for his nomination first, last, and all the time, knowing him to be an able, experienced educator, a man of fine business capacity and one worthy and fully competent in every respect to fill the important office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. The idea of the county paper of his own county and his Democratic friends of this county taking part in favor of any one of the contending candidates for any one of the other State offices, thus arraying the other candidates and their followers against our own candidate is suicidal to our man, and is simply slaughtering him in the house of his friends. The Democrats of Ohio county in mass meeting endorsed Prof. W. B. Hayward unanimously, and having done so, and he having announced himself a candidate, it is just to him to have the delegates from this county to go uninstructed save for him.

THE Hartford HERALD, (the best paper in Southern Kentucky—present company always excepted,) has fallen back into the able hands of its former editor, Wall, we think its readers can Barrett.—Paducah Journal.

MR. CICERO T. SUTTON, who succeeded Col. Jno. P. Barrett, in the editorial and business management of the Hartford HERALD, this week retires from the labors and honors of that sterling good paper. Col. Barrett again takes the helm and command, and we hope not only welcome him back, but hope he may sail into wealth untold.—Union Local.

Editor Herald:

Business is booming in our town just now.

A. J. Obinchain, photographer, is still with us and is doing a good business.

The Ohio Presbytery closed its session here last Sunday.

Reph. Wright, Esq., of Whitesville, has moved here and will run his blacksmith shop here.

The public school expects next week. Our reading club is still prosperous and is doing a good work for literature.

Wm. Lyons, Esq., has sold his interest in the saw mill here to Allen Black, Esq., who will run it in future.

John Steele, Esq., gave us a lecture on temperance on Tuesday night last, which was well delivered and fully appreciated.

The charivari of Jerry Yo-yes, who has lately taken upon himself the ugly bonds of wedlock, resulted in the immersion of Dr. J. H. Black and a speedy adjournment.

A Sunday school was organized at Zion church last Sunday evening under very favorable prospects and it is hoped that the community will take a lively interest in it and make it both pleasant and profitable.

He was unanimously nominated and requested to make the race by the Greenback convention held in Hartford April 24, 1883, and having accepted the same he is now before the people and asks a due consideration of his claims. 144

PERSONALS

Persons in town having visitors or any other item they would like in this column would confer a favor if they would inform this office. The town is not very large, but one hand can't get all over it every day and run a newspaper.

Mrs. Annie Hays, of South Carrollton, is visiting relatives in this place.

Mrs. Jane Grider, of Bowling Green, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Chapman.

Mr. S. F. Howey, of Central City, a former citizen of this place, is visiting friends here.

We had a call Friday from J. J. Tilford, Esq., of Rosine. He was enroute for Evansville.

Misses Delia and Jessie Metcalf, of Owensboro, were visiting relatives in this place last week.

Mr. G. B. Williams and family have rented the cottage of J. W. Ford, near Mr. Potter's and moved thereto.

Sam L. Baird, Esq., who was severely kicked by a horse recently has recovered sufficiently to be up at work.

Thanks to Mr. L. M. Cummings, of Rockport vicinity, for a pleasant call and subscription for HERALD last Saturday.

Mrs. Eden, of Paducah, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Field, at Buford, this county, and will remain for some time.

Mr. C. A. Duncan, representing the wholesale grocery firm of W. H. Newnam & Co., Louisville, was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. C. A. Shreve, the popular young merchant of Patteeville, called to see us yesterday and reports business good in that part of the county.

Mr. G. W. Edwards, the famous rope walker, of Chillicothe, Ohio, was in town several days last week. He was on his way to join Burr Robbin's Circus.

E. D. Guffey, Esq., returned a few days ago from an extended trip to relatives in Morgantown. He was also attending Circuit Court at that place.

Mr. Godfrey McHenry left on Monday morning and will sojourn for awhile at McHenry. He has a position with the McHenry Coal Company.

Our young friend, Henry Eskridge, of McHenry, was in town Saturday night and Sunday. He came up to see us to see—well, to see his sister, Mrs. G. B. Williams.

Dr. Wedding, of Rosine, a life long friend of ours, called to see us last Saturday and congratulated us on our re-election to the editorial tripod. Thanks, Doctor, for your patronage and influence.

Mr. L. P. Downs, of Muhlenberg county, called on us Monday and renewed his subscription for the HERALD. He informed us that he has run eleven hundred logs to Evansville this year and got fine prices for them.

Mr. Geo. S. Priest, of Livermore, called to see us Monday last and subscribed for the HERALD. We are glad to note that he is improving from the serious sprain received two years ago. Dr. Pendleton is treating him.

Mr. P. W. Roll, of Bloomington, Henderson county, Ky., a former clerk in R. P. Rowe's dry goods establishment, was in town Monday and Tuesday. Mr. R. is in the mercantile business at that place. We wish him success.

Miss Laura Midkiff has engaged to teach school at the No Creek school house, commencing last Monday. She is no doubt well qualified for the purpose and will make a successful teacher.

Mr. Fitzugh Rufus, of Sulphur Springs, called on us Saturday evening last and invested $150 in Hartford HERALD. He had just returned from Evansville where he had been with about 300 saw logs. He had an easy trip, good time and sold at good prices to Jno. A. Reitz & Son.

—Remember you can buy a good sewing machine with cover for $20 at Anderson's Bazaar. 444

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

—Seeds of every variety for sale at the Red Front.

—New line of Gent's ties just received at Z. A. Rosenberg's.

—John H. Barnes has purchased the drug store at Beaver Dam, formerly belonging to Mitchell & Williams.

—The tobacco merchants at this place have been receiving a large quantity of the weed during the last few days.

—Samuel Neafus, Esq., of the firm of Sherrod & Neafus, has sold his interest to Mr. Sherrod and moved with family to Horse Branch.

—The Sabbath schools at this place are flourishing and it is a happy influence the bright sunny faces we see as they pass to and from.

—Married—At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. B. L. Ward, near Hartford, Thursday, April 12th, 1883, Mr. William Chapman and Miss Annie Ward. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Bennett.

—The fine stage of the water for boating for the last week, together with the fine weather, has been too tempting for some of the College students and rare sport and enjoyment has been the consequence.

—Married—At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. B. L. Ward, near Hartford, Thursday, April 12th, 1883, Mr. William Chapman and Miss Annie Ward. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Bennett.

—Uncle Billy Coleman is out seeing the people and says he is convincing them very fast that he is the proper man to send to the Legislature this year. Uncle Billy has, as he deserves, lots of friends.

—One of the most energetic and industrious boys we know of is Master Owen Thomas, who is clerking for his father, and besides has a business of his own.

—The Red Front is receiving many fresh supplies of staple and fancy groceries in addition to the large stock on hand.

—The warm sunshine and rain during the last few days has caused the buds and flowers to burst forth. Indeed it seems as if spring had really come.

—Don't fail to stop in at the Red Front and get a glass of cold crabclaw where it is always to be had, also a bit of something good to eat to go with it.

—Dr. W. B. Armendt will be at the Hartford house on April 10th prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Will remain but a few days. Call on him early. 1444 —Best cotton jeans at 20 cents a yard at H. Small's.

—After our paper was set up and ready to go to press, and too late to get any more news letter from "Coy Eye" of Paradise. We regret we cannot give it to our readers until next week.

—There have been several deaths around here lately. They are the persons indicated to me. I know they are dead or they would have responded to my call.

—John H. Weller has been dividing his time between the office and the law office, but is now devoting all his time to seeing the people in the interest of his candidacy for the Legislature and—well, you all know that Weller says he has got the finest boy in the county. It all the follows who have been there will vote for Weller, he will be satisfied.

—Mr. W. J. Jones, of the Red Front, have just received the largest stock of trout lines, stagings, fish hooks, sinkers, fish lines &c., ever offered for sale in Hartford. Don't fail to examine them before purchasing, for they will sell them to you at low down figures. You bet.

—As will be seen elsewhere, the firm of Sherrod & Neafus has dissolved. Mr. Neafus has moved to Horse Branch. Mr. Sherrod will continue to run the restaurant and saloon at the same stand, and will serve the traveling people with a place to sleep and something good to eat and drink.

—Mr. Ernsperger is an early bird. He came to town yesterday morning at 3 o'clock and roused the clerk up and had him go to the office and issue him license to marry Miss S. A. Hamilton. His excuse was that he wanted to see the "gal" while she was in the humor.

—Mr. Thornton Patton, now 78 years old, called to see us yesterday. He was born in Bourbon county and lived there until he was about forty years old, when he came to this county where he has lived ever since and yesterday was the first time he ever saw a plowing press at work.

—Hon. Jesse S. Williams is making an active canvas for re-election. He, as well as may do, invite the people to scrutinize his record as a member of the last Legislature, and promises that what he has gained by experience shall inure to the benefit of the people if he is chosen to be his own successor.

—The unusual rafting season has prevented C. G. Kimbley from mixing with his numerous friends and the people generally as much as he would like to have done. But high water and snow logs have such a charm for Caleb that he can't resist going to Evansville every year. He says, however, that he believes that he will make a better profit in, of good material, at a fair price.

—We were glad to see our old friend James S. Chinn in town Monday. He is wounded in the knee Christmas day last by an accidental shot from one of those accursed toy pistols in the hands of a boy named Ellis. He is just now getting out again. He was wounded during the war in one hip and now in the knee of the other leg makes him an unfortunate cripple. Away with the toy pistols, say we.

—All the Hartford people, and especially the children, remember little Allie and Bernard, the beautiful children with Miles Orton's show. The children were great favorites and our people will be glad to see that they will be at Beaver Dam on the 19th inst. All Fields, the favorite clown, still does the funny work and Miles Orton is still the greatest bareback rider on the road. All those who were at Hartford two years ago will be on hand.

—Westward the star of Empire takes its way but to Beaver Dam all the people in this region of country are taking their way just now. Why? Because they have found that Oscar Stevens & Co. have every kind of goods they want, good goods, substantial goods, fashionable goods and best of all, at prices that defy competition. Don't take our word for it, but go and see and be convinced yourself.

—We call attention to the announcement of Richard H. Stevens, which appears in this issue. Mr. Stevens has been acting with the Greenback party ever since its existence; was the candidate of the party for Assessor in 1882; is a sober, steady farmer, a sensible business man, and if elected will, no doubt, make a fair representative. His connections are quite numerous in the county and no one of the name ever represented the county, and, no doubt, they think that one of their name should be thus honored. At least Dick is in for the fight and proposes to see through it.
